THIRTY-TWO STATE POLICE SCOUR STAR JUNCTION REGION IN SEARCH FOR FIRE FIEND

Officers Hurried to Scene Following Burning of Town School Building.

600 CHILDREN GET REST

Blaze Starting in Basement Almost Completely Wrecks 10-Room Structure; Firemen Save Annex in Course of Construction; Loss is $30,000.

State police have taken up the work of apprehending the firebugs who are causing the destruction of much property in the way of school houses and farm buildings in the region of Belle Vernon and Fayette City. The latest outrage committed by what is thought to be an organized band was the burning of the Star Junction school early Sunday morning. The loss is estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000, according to the statement of a member of the Perry township school board. About 600 children are exempt from their studies as a result of the blaze.

The fire, first discovered about 3 o'clock in the morning, quickly gained headway and most of the efforts of volunteers were given to saving the annex of four rooms which is being built. Factory Inspector J. S. Darr went to Star Junction this morning and made an inspection of the walls, which are standing. One wall will have to be torn down part way and a section of another will have to be rebuilt. The interior of the building suffered much damage.

Nothing will be done to get the children in school this week and as the two-week Christmas vacation begins next week the board will have almost a month in which to prepare to handle the problem of housing the students. There are practically five rooms available with some repairs. The structure contained 10 rooms.

The fire was started in a back room where it would not be noticed immediately. Fifteen minutes before it was discovered there was no blaze in the building. The fire spread quickly, however. It was discovered by Richard Laemme and the town turned out to extinguish it.

Yesterday 31 state police were on the scene endeavoring to uncover some clue which would lead to the apprehension of the maniacs doing the work. It was reported this morning that one man was arrested but what was done with him could not be learned.

It has been suggested that some of the students may be taken to two country schools near Layton, which have been abandoned for some time. To do this the school board may charter the Washington Run train to carry 190 students and two teachers to and from their homes each day.

Fire was discovered in a bed in the home of Clyde White at Star Junction at 8 o'clock last night. This blaze was put out only to have another originate in a closet about 11 o'clock. Whether these fires were the work of incendiaries or not was a matter of conjecture. There were a number of different stories going about concerning this fire.

By Associated Press.

BELLE VERNON, Dec. 6—Troops of the state police and officers from here today arrested a man near Fairhope in the belief that he knew something of the incendiary fires which for the past six weeks have destroyed school buildings and other property worth more than a million dollars in the vicinity of Fayette City. The man who said he had been employed at a gas plant had been loitering in the vicinity several days. He was brought to the Belle Vernon jail.

In an effort to protect school buildings and other property which has been the prey of what the authorities believe is an organized gang of firebugs a Legion Citizens Protective society has been organized and all roads leading to Fayette City are nightly patrolled by overseas veterans. The latest fire occurred yesterday when the Star Junction school was burned with an estimated loss of $25,000.

HARDING PLEADS COOPERATION AS CONGRESS OPENS

President-elect Given Rousing Ovation on Appearance in Senate.

"OBLIGARCHY" IS FICTION

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The third and final session of the 66th Congress began here today, with President-elect Harding in his seat in the Senate. The galleries began to fill early and were crowded when the gavel of Vice President Marshall and Speaker Gillett fell promptly at noon.

A day of cooperation and friendly relations between the White House and Congress was forecast by President-elect Harding in a short address from the floor of the Senate. Though disclaiming any desire to criticize the present administration, Mr. Harding declared it was one of the ambitions of his four years as chief executive to insure better teamwork between the two branches of the government.

Senator Harding was given a round of applause as he entered the Senate chamber just before noon. Spectators rose all over the galleries to obtain a better view of the President-elect who entered from the Republican cloak room with Senator Lodge, Republican leader.

Mr. Harding was surrounded immediately by a crowd of senators who shook his hand and clapped him upon the back. The President-elect welcomed his admirers with a broad smile.

Senator Harding rose to speak after Senator Lodge had called attention formally to his presence and Mr. Harding had asked recognition by the Vice President.

"I am pleased by this greeting by my fellow members of the Senate," said Mr. Harding. "There is still greater satisfaction in having this opportunity to say to you some of the things in my heart which I could utter in no other way. I recognize I am here under somewhat unusual circumstances and there is a delicacy about it that one in my position cannot escape except through some sort of self-effacement which does not seem quite possible.

"No member of this body could be more reluctant to leave it. I may say to this Senate that I came here with very high respect for it and I am leaving it with greater respect than when I came. If one could always direct his own political fortunes to his liking I should have preferred by membership to any office a citizen may hold in this republic or elsewhere in the world.

"I like the freedom, the patriotic sense of responsibility which abides here. I am conscious of the great place which Congress holds under our constitution and particularly sensible to the obligations of the Senate. When my responsibility begins in the executive capacity I shall be as mindful of the Senate's responsibilities as I have been zealous of them as a member, but I mean at the same time to be just as insistent upon the responsibility of the executive. Our governmental good fortune does not lie in any surrender at either end of the avenue, but in the cooperation which becomes the two in a great and truly representative government.

"This brings me to the thought particularly on my mind. Something has been said about the Senatorial oligarchy. Of course every one here knows that to be a bit of highly imaginative and harmless fiction but I do recognize how essential is the helpfulness in the maintenance of a successful administration.

"I wish to express today the wish of a colleague for the confidence and cooperation of the Senate in the four years which begin March 4 next.

"I do not limit this request to this side of the aisle. One cannot promise agreement in all things with an opposite party which is sometimes insistently wrong but we may find common ground in the spirit of service and I hope for that agreeable and courteous and helpful relationship with the opposite side which has added to the delight of fellow service during the past six years."

Senator Harding spoke briefly and the Senate then adjourned without transacting any business to wait a communication from President Wilson.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, headed a committee which called at the White House today to inform President Wilson that Congress was in session and ready to receive a communication from him. It was the first meeting between the President and Senator Lodge since before the peace treaty was defeated in the Senate under Senator Lodge's leadership.

Almost Five Billions Asked By Administration of Congress.

INTEREST NEAR BILLION

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Another peace-time estimate of nearly five billions of dollars for the government's expenses during the fiscal year 1922 faced Congress when it reassembled today. The exact figures as transmitted by Secretary Houston were $4,663,856,759, an increase of nearly one billion dollars over the appropriations for the current year, but $271,000,000 less than the estimates submitted a year ago.

Continuing war costs were directly reflected throughout the estimates, indicating that the government might be on a four billion dollar basis for some years to come, as compared with the one billion dollar maximum preceding the war. The single item of interest on the public debt was almost the pre-war maximum of all appropriations, this total being $922,650,000. In addition there was an estimate of $265,734,864 for the war debt sinking fund.

Of the individual departments, the Army and Navy, as usual, asked for the greatest amounts, the estimate for the military establishment being $695,275,502 and for the naval establishment $458,522,231.

The total estimates as given by Mr Houston follow:

Legislative (Congress), $9,311,040.

Executive (White House and government departments), $125,418,779.

Judicial (Supreme court), $1,650,215.

Department of Agriculture, $11,989,179.

Foreign intercourse, $11,983,815.

Indian affairs, $17,989,703.

Pensions, $265,190,000.

Panama canal, $16,187,265.

Public works, $250,928,194.

Postal service, $585,406,902.

Miscellaneous, $675,154,741.

Permanent annual appropriations, $1,300,776,361.

These estimates, prepared by the Democratic administration, are for the operation of the government during the first fiscal year of the new Republican administration. Republican leaders in the Senate and House already have forecast a sharp cut in the total, and within the week the House committees will begin the work of shaping the bills which will carry the sums for the various departments.

The estimate for the postal service will not actually figure in governmental expenditures since the postal revenues practically cover the cost of operation.

Included in the estimates for the Army and Navy is a total of $95,000,000 for development and maintenance of the air service of the two defensive branches of the government. The Navy asks for $35,000,000 and the Army asks for $60,000,000.

Chief among the estimates of the Navy is one of $181,000,000 to continue the 1916 three-year building program. Pay for the Navy personnel exceeds it by $923,910.

The Army's greatest single item is $215,959,830 for the pay and mileage of officers and men. Subsistence costs for the force is estimated at $64,400,876. An appropriation of $74,808,000 is proposed for the National Guard.

Expenditures on public works suggested under the War Department total $185,134,928 of which $68,097,865 goes to river and harbor development. For improvement and maintenance of military posts, fortifications and other works of defense the Army asks $117,013,614.

Included in the miscellaneous items is an estimate of $117,898,620 for the Shipping Board and one of $160,000,000 for the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

In the program to take care of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines under the war risk act, the Treasury Department seeks appropriations of $31,000,000 for additional hospital and dispensary facilities and $50,000,000 for medical and hospital services. The Federal Board for Vocational Education asks $78,000,000 to carry on its work.

The Treasury also seeks $57,033,000 for the Internal Revenue Department which compares with $43,038,000 spent in the current fiscal year. For prohibition enforcement $7,500,000 is asked.

Included in the miscellaneous expenditures are estimates by the various departments for the conduct of strictly departmental affairs, some of which follow: Interstate Commerce Commission, $5,574,000; Federal Trade Commission, $1,955,000; United States Employes' Compensation Commission and compensation fund, $3,926,810, and Railroad Labor Board, $550,000.

FORMER REGULAR ARMY MAN, PETER W. MURPHY, WOODLAWN, IS NAMED COUNTY DETECTIVE

Peter W. Murphy of Woodlawn, near Pittsburg, a veteran in the military service and for a long time a member of the state constabulary, was this morning named county detective of Fayette county, succeeding John J. Smith who resigned some time ago.

The appointment, made by the district attorney, was approved by the court and the new officer sworn in.

Detective Murphy has had 21 years of experience a police work. For a year he was located in Uniontown as sergeant of a detachment of state police. That was three years ago. He served two enlistments in the Regular Army after which he was for eight years a member of the state police force. For the past year he had been a special officer for the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, Pittsburg.

Mr. Murphy has a wife and one child and will move to Uniontown as soon as he can get a home. He is described as five feet, eight inches tall, of robust build and absolutely fearless.

There was a large field of applicants for the position, among the aspirants being one or more residents of Connellsville.

ELKS PAY HONOR TO THE MEMORY OF THEIR DEPARTED

Usual Impressive Services Held Sunday at Soisson Theatre.

UNIONTOWN MAN SPEAKS

Memories of departed brothers and loved friends were fondly heaped at the annual memorial services of the B. P. O. Elks, held here yesterday afternoon at the Soisson theatre by the Connellsville lodge No. 993. The beautiful services, an annual occasion, always occurring on the first Sunday in December, were witnessed by hundreds who crowded into the theatre.

The stage had been beautifully decorated for the ceremonies. The usual lodge of sorrow rituals were conducted by the officers of the organization. The services opened after the big body of Elks, who had marched from the home in East Crawford avenue had been seated in a reserved section. Each Elk wore a white flower.

J. B. Millard, exalted ruler of the order, had charge of the ceremonies. Following the exemplification of the ritual, the memorial address was made by Attorney H. C. Tabor of Uniontown. Mr. Tabor spoke of the purpose of Elkdom the motives upon which it was founded and which governed the acts of the order.

"Charity and Love, the foundation of Elkdom," he said. "Touching on the purpose of the memorial exercises, he said that "where friendship is and memory is there can be said to be death."

The speaker declared that it was worth everyones while to "stop and view the fundamental things of life occasionally and figure out why we are here. Other and not set is the big word in Elks work," he said. In concluding his address Attorney Tabor said there were 800,000 Elks in the world and "those 800,000 will always remain a bulwark on which America can rest."

A new departure in the services was the manner of roll call. The curtain was dropped for a short intermission, during which time the setting of the stage was changed. The second scene was that of a church, and a new grave in the church cemetery. Mrs. Len Moon, Miss Grace Robinson, Masters Harold DeBolt and George Kinsaid were principals in a symbolical figure expressing the purpose of Elkdom.

As the secretary called the roll of the departed, golden stars were hung upon the frame of a cross, which stood at the head of the grave. At the same time a chrysanthemum was laid upon the grave. When the roll call was completed a huge golden cross, formed of many stars, was illuminated against the background and the grave was banked with flowers.

A male quartet composed of R. O. Clabaugh, R. L. Weimer, Lester Crawford and H. E. Mason sang an anthem, followed by "Lead Kindly Light." A selected song was also sung by a friend. The audience joined in singing the doxology, and the services ended with the closing ceremonies of the lodge.

Members of the lodge in whose memory the services were held are: W. A. Davidson, J. Emmet Stillwagon, Harry S. Stout, M. K. Smith, James Richard, C. L. Cauley, W. D. Anderson, B. F. Weil, A. J. DECEMBER TERM CRIMINAL COURT GETS UNDER WAY

Hundred Twenty-nine Cases Listed For Term, Among Them Four Murders.

MAY HEAR LIQUOR CASES

The December term of Fayette county criminal court opened this morning in Uniontown, with 129 cases listed. Judge E. H. Reppert delivered the charge to the grand jury of which Owen R. Brownfield of Perryopolis, a broker, was named foreman. The charge of the court dilated not from the ordinary.

Of the 129 cases listed for the term there are four murder cases, one voluntary manslaughter and one involuntary manslaughter. Only 12 cases are listed for the third week and it is probable that the liquor cases numbering near 100 growing out of the recent raid instigated by the Committee of One Hundred will be added to the last week of the term. However this has not been decided upon definitely.

There are 11 liquor cases which are not connected with the raid listed for trial. The list includes five violations of the automobile law one cruelty to an infant and two cruelty to animal cases. There is also one violation of the school code case and the remainder consists of the different forms of larceny and felony cases.

The cases of Edward Cohee and W. E. Gaffney, state troopers, charged with the voluntary manslaughter of James Graham at Connellsville, will be tried the first week, charged with the murder of Doc Walker at Grays Landing. Joe Coyne of Connellsville will be tried the first week on a charge of involuntary manslaughter, growing out of an automobile accident.

There are two homicide cases listed for the second week. Ralph Cline is charged with the murder of Patsy Bruno in his home at Point Marion. William Daugherty will be tried for the murder of Charles Smith at Shady Grove park while the miners were holding a picnic. Daugherty is alleged to have struck Smith over the head with a baseball bat which caused his death.

Bob Ross, alias Bob Lawson, will be tried the third week for the murder of Sam Taylor at Monvue.

GAMBLING HOUSES CLOSED, FOLLOWING M'DONALD'S ORDER

None Open Saturday Night, Chief of Police McDonald Says.

CHURCHES BACK NEW HEAD

Methodist Bible Class Adopts Resolution of Support and Members Agree to Supply Information; Congratulations Printed in Church Bulletins.

So far as gambling houses known to the police were concerned the city was closed up tight Saturday night, according to Chief McDonald. The "place up the hill" and one on the West Side were said to have suspended. No arrests were made of proprietors or inmates of either gambling or disorderly houses.

Cases of drunkenness were conspicuous by their absence, so far as the police docket record shows. Not one arrest for this offense was made. The only case noted was of a motorist charged with violation of the automobile parking regulations. The car bearing license number 249-347 stood on the wrong side of a "no parking" street for an hour. The owner whose machine was target, did not appear.

Taking advantage of Chief McDonald's order for a cleanup of the city in the matter of gambling houses and resorts of ill repute, church organizations and pastors Sunday stepped into the crusade. At several of the churches the pastors called attention to the change in the administration of the police department and invited support for him.

The Men's Bible class of the First Methodist Episcopal church passed a resolution "sustaining" the chief in his movement, "against the forces of evil" and giving assurance that it will "stand by" him. Information secured by members of the class will be turned over to the chief, the members agreed. E. Dunn and George B. Freed were named a committee to acquaint the chief with the action taken. There were 40 men out for the meeting.

Rev. Dr. Bennett W. Hutchinson, the pastor of the Methodist church, drew attention to the new movement and pronounced it a "good omen." Dr. Hutchinson also spoke on the nation-wide movement along the same line.

Reference to the elevation of "Irish Tom" to the head of the police force was made in a number of church bulletins. Quotations read:

United Presbyterian church—"The new chief of police was very grateful to know that the class is going to stand by him. Watch the other classes of other churches fall in line."

First Presbyterian church—"We have a new chief of police familiarly known as 'Irish Tom.' He has for many years been a good policeman, and we believe he will make a good chief. We have always had confidence in him. He has the desire and the carelessness to do what is right. He deserves, therefore, the support of all good citizens and we feel sure he will have it. He has a difficult task to perform, but he has set about it with a right good will and with an earnestness of purpose that cannot fail to show him that we are with him in all he does for the betterment of the town. We have congratulated the mayor upon the appointment and Mr. McDonald upon his supreme."

First Christian church—"If all reports are true the people of Connellsville are to be congratulated upon their new chief of police, Thomas McDonald. The good citizens should rally to his support. Council should back him up in his endeavors to give Uniontown Connellsville."

GREEKS ARE OVERWHELMINGLY FOR RETURN OF CONSTANTINE, BRITAIN ADOPTS MEASURES

By Associated Press.

ATHENS, Dec. 6.—Returns from the plebiscite held throughout Greece yesterday which was to decide whether the Greek people would recall former King Constantine to the throne made vacant by the death of his son, King Alexander, appeared to indicate an overwhelming majority in favor of Constantine.

The vote is being counted as a matter of formality. Reports from the nation generally indicate a majority of 500,000 in favor of the return of Constantine and claims are made that the entire electorate of 800,000 voted for him. Four million ballots were printed for the plebiscite. Arrangements have been made for the return of Constantine.

It is pointed out in this city by adherents of the former king that "the Allies do not understand that the people demand Constantine and are losing time writing notes."

ATHENS, Dec. 6.—Great Britain will extend no further aid to Greece in case King Constantine returns to the throne, according to a note presented today. The minister also presented a note to the government demanding payment of outstanding loans.

BIBLE TORN TO SHREDS AND PLACED ON FURNACE REGISTER AT LITTLE REDSTONE CHURCH

A very unusual attempt at starting an incendiary fire was made at the Little Redstone Presbyterian church in Jefferson township Saturday night. The person endeavoring to start the fire, however displayed considerable ignorance in his efforts to destroy the edifice, one of the pioneer Presbyterian churches in the county.

Breaking in through a window, the Bible was taken from the pulpit and torn into shreds. The pieces were placed over the register of a hot air furnace, the remainder evidently thinking the heat would cause the bits to catch fire some time before morning. The act was discovered by William Steepe, the janitor, when he went to the church Sunday morning.

Although the arsonist broke one of the beautiful church windows to get into the edifice this act of wanton destruction was not necessary. The doors of the church are never locked.

The church is a brick building, and one of the oldest structures of the kind in Fayette county. It is located about two and one-half miles from Fayette City, between Perryopolis and Brownsville.

Lack of Bars Given as Cause of Suspension at Sheet Mills.

CHRISTMAS BUYING IS GOOD

Bishop Weekley to Hold Revival in United Brethren Church Beginning December 30; Pastor, Rev. Strayer, Delivers Preliminary Sermons.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTTDALE, Dec. 6.—Rev. George R. Strayer, pastor of the United Brethren church, preached a sermon yesterday morning on "The Ideal Revival," and last evening on "Disregarded Signals." These sermons are preliminary to the revival services that will begin December 30 in charge of Bishop W. M. Weekley of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mills in Operation Again.

The United States Cast Iron Pipe & Foundry company resumed operation this morning after being closed down for three days. This week it was stated, the every-other-day plan would be adopted.

The Scottdale and Old Meadow Mills of the American Sheet & Tin Plate company also resumed after being closed down for three days. The mills were waiting on bars which arrived the latter part of the week.

It was stated on Saturday that the furnace would be closed down next.

Despite the closing down of industrial plants for several days each week the Scottdale public has either formed the thrift habit and saved money for the Christmas shopping or money enough is realized from curtailed work for the Christmas shopping, as not any difference can be seen in the shoppers that are thronging the stores.

December Cut-Price Sales.

To force a tremendous ready-to-wear business in December, when the public mind is bent on Xmas shopping, we are offering values that would be sensational even at the end of the season. We have taken advantage of market conditions to buy at lower prices and readjusted our own stocks to the new low price levels. January Clearance prices now the very first day of December, when our stocks are complete and new—no need to wait until after Christmas for reductions. Buy tomorrow at January prices and have a month's additional wear out of your purchases. Bendiner's, Ladies' Store, as you get off the car.—Adv.

Infant Dies.

Clyde, the month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Teets of North Scottdale, died very early yesterday morning. Funeral services will be held this afternoon and interment will be made in the Scottdale cemetery.

Grangers Meet.

At the meeting of the Eureka Grange, held on Saturday afternoon in the I. O. O. F. hall, Miss Edna Crouse, librarian, was present and had a showing of books that would interest the farmers. Most of the books exhibited were those issued by the government to the farmer for the asking. The display was interesting and more than one of the grange members showed interest in the government movement of keeping the farmer posted. Following this there were initiations and a business session.

Contest Continued.

Seventy-eight members were out to the prayermeeting services on last Wednesday evening at the Baptist church and since the number still increased the contest has been continued over one week and an effort will be made to have 100 persons out next Wednesday evening.

STEAM HEATING SYSTEM TO KEEP BOILER ROOM WARM IS PLACED IN WEST PENN PLANT

A boiler room with a steam heating system to keep it warm. Seems strange, but that is the condition at the new Springdale plant of the West Penn Power company. The furnace temperature of the four boilers now in operation is about 3,000 degrees, yet so little of this intense heat is allowed to escape that for the comfort of stoker attendants and other employes heating fixtures had to be installed.

This is modern mechanical efficiency in a high degree. The retention by the use of special insulating brick for the front, back and top of the boilers.

There are four boilers in operation now at Springdale. There is space in the boiler room for six and the fifth is now being contructed. The four that are completed are set higher than any other boilers in the world, so far as the records show. They are 16 feet above the ground and the fifth will be six feet higher. This reduces the amount of cleaning which has to be done because of ash particles being carried up by the gases and collecting on the tubes.

The two turbo-generators at Springdale are now operating, though not at capacity. A maximum load of 33,000 kilowatts has been carried.

A CLEAR SKIN

Women do not have to patronize the beauty parlor—for if their skin is disfigured with pimples and blotches, and their blood is in disorder they should obtain at the drug store that wonderful blood tonic and alterative of Dr. Pierce's which he placed before the public over 50 years ago. Since that time many thousands of Pennsylvania men and women have testified to its wonderful blood cleansing effect. This is what one woman says:

Philadelphia, Pa.:—"I have been troubled in the past for about four months or more with a rash. My face would all break out at times. I was visiting a friend and she told me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It helped me wonderfully. I also took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Now I have a clear skin—thanks and many thanks to Dr. Pierce. I shall never be without these two medicines in my home."—MRS. B. O'CONNELL, 2302 Fitzwater St.

28 Idle Hens Now Lay 27 Eggs A Day

And This Was In Cold Winter Weather. Plan Is Simple.

"I fed Don Sung to my 28 hens that were not laying. But they are laying now. I receive an high as 27 eggs a day and never less than 22."—Mrs. Jennie Davidson, Yates Center, Kan.

Mrs. Davidson wrote this letter in February. Figure her profit on two dozen eggs a day from hens that "wouldn't lay." We'll make you the same offer we made her. Here it is:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dreyer Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. There little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brains and "perk up" the spirits. Take one ...

DUNN IS TOPPED BY MICKEY FORKINS IN 10 ROUND FISTIC BATTLE AT SLAVISH HALL

Former Dunbar Boy Gives Promise of Being a Real Contender For Title.

OTHER BOUTS ARE GOOD

Connellsville followers of the fistic sport saw their favorite, Mickey Forkins, win decisively over Charley Dunn, of Ambridge, Pa, in a slashing 10-round scrap at the Slavish hall on the West Side Saturday night The fight was one of consistent punches by both men and sizzled with pep every minute

Forkins, who is undoubtedly a big comer, led the scrapping most of the time Only in a few instances did Dunn wade in and give anything that looked like the form he was cracked up to have Forkins easily took eight of the 10 rounds.

Fans came to their feet in the seventh when it seemed that a knockout by Forkins would result but the bell rang in time to allow Dunn to recover from the hail of blows It is the opinion of the fans that Forkins would have cleaned up had there been an extra round to the show

Dunn had a powerful right which he swung toward Forkins head several times, but it never landed Touted a a kayo artist Dunn didn't come up to the expectations of the fans but Forkins was a surprise A host of friends from Dunbar and other points in the region were on hand to back him

In the semi-final Mike Moran of Mount Washington walloped Young Piazza, a bigger opponent, of Pittsburg Moran was the aggressor continually and the bout was one thoroughly enjoyed by the fans

Johnny Pollock won in the curtain raiser He met Jimo McMahon of Trotter Although his first scrap McMahon waded in in the first round but Pollock stopped his rushes in the second McMahon did not start the third frame claiming an injury to the right shoulder received while at work, was interfering with his fighting

Tony Bufano, who had been advertised to referee, could not officiate and Eddie Turner, a local man, filled the third place in the ring

Every fight presented to fans this winter has been a topnotcher and the sport is gradually attracting new boosters

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETEERS STAGE HARD WORKOUTS

The high school basketball squad staged a hard workout on Saturday afternoon at the gymnasium Fifteen men who had been selected as varsity candidates by Coach Rupp reported and were put through a gruelling process.

The players seem to be taking more interest in their condition this year The Cokers will probably need more endurance than some of the opponents to be played as the locals will be lighter than many other quintets and speed on the floor will be the winning factor for the Orange and Black

COACH NIXON THINKS BREAKS COUNT MOST

Football Played for Benefit of Men Involved.

Captain Covington as Quarterback and Bell at Tackle Are Two Stars That Stand Out Prominently on His Team This Year.

Football—as she is played out where the West begins—is just as enthusiastically pursued as back near the Eastern seaboard.

Harvard's small margin victory over the Oregon eleven last fall didn't show the game as played by Eastern cracks to be so overwhelmingly superior to the Pacific coast brand

The records made by both football and track athletes of the West indicate that America's athletic strength is shifting "Westward, ho!"

Western-bred men are sturdy and possess natural grit and speed, says a writer in Chicago Post But until recent years they haven't been getting the top notch coaches.

At Pomona college, Claremont Cal, football is humming under the direction of Coach Eugene V Nixon

Nixon's theory is that most big games are won on the break If teams are evenly matched the game is not won usually by pounding the line and running the ends, but by taking advantage of the breaks or some well-planned strategy

Another pet theory of the California coach is that the game is played for the benefit of the men involved and he takes care of their physical welfare accordingly

He has two stars that stand out on his squad this fall They are Captain Covington, all state quarterback, and Bell, the all Southern tackle

Coach Nixon has been at Claremont since 1915, where he directs both track and football

From 1900 to 1915 he coached high school football at Davenport, Ia. His teams lost only two games in six consecutive seasons His success at Pomona has been equally good the team losing only one game in three years

The greatest play Nixon ever saw was engineered by John Schuler present captain of the Cornell eleven Schuler was then playing quarterback for the Davenport high school team The play consisted of a fake line buck and then a long forward pass that won the game from Clinton high school The play was completed after the whistle had blown

"The greatest player I ever saw," says Nixon, "was Chester Smith quarterback on the Monmouth college teams of 1905 to 1907 Smith never was credited with national fame because he played on a small college team but he had everything and I give him rank above all the football players I have ever seen Eckersall D scoll Shy Huntington Thorpe Brickley Mahan and the rest of them undoubtedly had it on Smith in certain respects, but in all around qualities Smith had it on them"

WHITTED WOULD HIT HURLER

As Much Reason for Batter Slugging Pitcher as There Is for Dusting Of Batsman

George Whitted of the Pittsburgh Pirates says there is just as much reason in a pitcher throwing a baseball to frighten a batter as there would be in a batter taking a bat and breaking the arm of a pitcher whom he could not hit—same theory in each case And Whitted hints that if he finds any pitcher trying to dust him off he'll do just that trick of equalizing things by busting the offending pitcher's arm

PENNSYLVANIA ISSUES INSTRUCTIONS TO MEN IN PASSENGER TRAFFIC

Instruction just issued to Pennsylvania Railroad train crews with their new autumn time tables provide among other things, as follows

At terminals—Trainmen will while loading passengers frequently announce the name of the principal stations at which the train will stop and before departure, repeat the announcement in all coaches

On trains—When approaching a station at which the train is to stop the name of the station will be announced at least twice inside of all coaches and dining cars

Passenger trainmen must not permit hand baggage or other effects to obstruct the aisles of passenger cars when possible to prevent it

CAMEL CITY—U S A.
(or, Winston-Salem, N C. according to the map)

GREETINGS, PETE!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R J Reynolds Tobacco Co factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin it for you, old top—listen.

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business, that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually 'born and raised in a tobacco patch", that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Peter, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!

Shorty.

NEWS OF THE DAY AT MT. PLEASANT BRIEFLY RELATED

Grim Reaper Has Busy Time in and About the Borough.

FOOTBALL GAME CALLED OFF

Uniontown Team Booked to Play the Superiors Does Not Come and Courtesy of Explanation Is Not Forthcoming; News of Sunday Schools.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Dec. 6—Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. John's church near Mount Pleasant for Henry F. Baker, 78 years old, who had lived at Carpentertown but who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hartje, near Greensburg. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

Samuel Olinger Dies.

Samuel Olinger, 69 years old, died early Saturday morning at his home in Diamond street following a stroke of paralysis. With his wife there survive five sons, Jesse, Frank, James, William and Roy, and one daughter, Nellie.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Tuesday afternoon and interment will follow in the Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Infant Dead.

Madeline Colano Chriocca, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amery Chriocca, died yesterday at the West Smithfield street home of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Colano. Interment was made in the Mount Pleasant cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Amery Chriocca arrived here on November 18 from Italy. Mrs. Chriocca is a niece of Mr. Colano.

Running True to Form.

Manager John Miller of the Superior basketball team is still wondering whether there is any sporting blood left in the Uniontown Collegiate five, who signed for a game with the Superiors for last Friday evening. The management sold tickets up until 8 o'clock—hoping the visitors would appear or at least advise the locals of their inability to get here. After that hour the patrons were reimbursed.

Manager Miller feels that if the Collegiates did not wish to play the local team it would have been courtesy at least for Manager Jacquette to cancel. Last year the team came here in automobiles and Manager Miller, thought they might come the same way Friday and had experienced tire trouble or other difficulty which would cause delay.

S. S. Workers Confer.

On Friday evening M. A. King entertained the officers of the Sunday school districts over which he is administrative superintendent at a 6 o'clock dinner and conference. From Youngwood came Mrs. Weaver and Mr. Tomb; from Mount Pleasant and Donegal townships, Mr. Stairs and Mrs. James Kalp; from Scottdale, Lyman Loucks, Walter F. Stoner and F. S. Wray; from Mount Pleasant, Milton George, Mrs. S. C. Stevenson and Elmer E. Berg; also County President J. S. Sisley, Rev. W. C. Hendrickson and A. G. Page. Following the dinner it was decided to hold a district convention some time in February in Hurst's high school.

Officers Elected.

Delegates of District No. 8 of the Westmoreland County Sunday School association held a meeting in the Re-Union Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Addresses were given by Rev. J. E. Hartman and Rev. C. W. Hendrickson. Music was furnished by Mrs. Frank Cooper's quartet and by Miss Sara Horner. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, M. R. George; vice president, M. A. King; secretary, Charles DePriest; treasurer, Ralph Stoner.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. E. E. Mason and daughter, Louise, left Friday for their home at Carnegie after a visit with Mrs. Mason's aunt, Mrs. August Robinslaw.

Hypercritical.

"Do you care for these movie 'close-ups?'"

"No," replied the esthetic person. "They give you a fine chance to study the expression on the star's face."

"Maybe so, but I can't admire even the most beautiful woman when her face looks like a full moon."

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

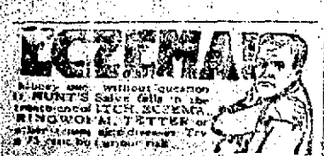

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

MONDAY EVENING, DEC. 6, 1920.

FIRST STEP IN SECURING THE CHAUTAUQUA.

The action taken by the congregations of the several churches yesterday in voting to give their moral support to a movement having as its obect the return of the chautauqua to Connellsville next summer, shows quite conclusively the sentiment of our people with respect to this enterprise, But in this respect there is no change in attitude During the seven summers the chautauqua appeared here our citizens showed themselves to be reasonably liberal patrons and willing to continue as such if a somewhat better system than previously employed were applied to its engagements to come from year to year.

The excellent character of this form of summer entertainment and instruction has long since been recognized and its value in these and other respects has been demonstrated and appreciated by all good citizens At the same time it is realized that the managers are not philanthropists They are in the business for the profit derived therefrom to which they are clearly and justly entitled Hence the experience of those who have heretofore been instrumental in securing the chautauqua has with each succeeding year tended more and more toward a demand that the management change the method of booking its engagements Thus it came about that upon the expiration of their contract of two years ago the guarantors refused to renew the arrangement under which the chautauqua had kept Connellsville on its engagement list Upon the last appearance no effort was made by the management to secure a return date either by a ticket subscription campaign or otherwise

The action of the church congregations therefore opens up the matter in such a way that if the chautauqua management takes advantage of it by sending a ticket selling crew here while the matter is fresh in the minds of the people no trouble should be experienced in placing the required number of subscriptions

If this is done, and sufficient energy and interest is manifested by the chautauqua management to make the people of this vicinity thoroughly acquainted with the attractions it has to offer next summer, instead of asking local people to perform the functions of both boosters and patrons the enterprise will be placed upon a more business-like basis and the response will be proportionately more liberal than heretofore

The Ministerial Association has quite properly taken the initiative in the matter but this organization and the men comprising it should not be expected or required to do the work or assume the responsibility the chautauqua as a business enterprise should do and assume The community represented by the churches has expressed its willingness to take the first step by pledging its support to the chautauqua The management now has the duty to see that every person expressing such willingness becomes a ticket subscriber

RESTRICTING IMMIGRATION.

In the demand organized labor has made for a restriction of immigration for a period of two years or longer the sentiment of the country at large is given expression In the disturbed economic conditions following the war every thoughtful citizen realizes that a very grave peril threatens our country if our gates are opened wide for the indiscriminate admission of the peoples of foreign lands Already thousands have come to our shores and millions more are merely awaiting steamship accommodations to swell the incoming tide to such proportions as will prove a menace to our domestic peace and tranquility

To control the addition of foreign born persons to our population our existing immigration laws are admittedly inadequate. There must be substantial revision pending which there should be a virtual suspension of the right of entry The industries of the country are not in need of more men in fact unemployment is already becoming quite a serious problem in many sections and is certain to be extended more generally during the process of readjusting business and manufacture to the post war conditions The bulk of the immigrants recently arriving have gone direct to the more populous centers instead of to the farming communities where there is opportunity to engage in productive employment The number of persons unemployed will therefore be increased and the great cities of the country will have a heavy burden to carry in meeting the situation in case of prolonged industrial depression

America has no desire to permanently debar worthy foreign born persons who desire to come here and assume the duties and responsibilities of citizenship but having heretofore been all too free in our welcome to whomsoever chose to come, we are now awake to the necessity of imposing reasonably protective restrictions

The war says the Pittsburg Gazette Times taught us how far short of assimilating our alien residents we had fallen We would be untrue to ourselves were we to permit bad conditions to be intensified by permitting vast numbers to flock here thus making the problem of Americanization to which we have set ourselves much more difficult if not impossible We might be less positive on this had not so many whom we have admitted abused our bounty Many who have come are possessed not of a desire to share in the privileges of American citizenship as it has been established but seek to set up a state of anarchy and lawlessness There is no room here for those of that type which we already have much less for others possessed of the same idea In placing rigid restrictions on immigration we will be departing somewhat from our previous policy but the demands of self-preservation alter conditions "It was never intended that this country should be a dumping ground for Europe Upright immigrants only were welcomed That it is feared that the percentage of desirable immigrants has been greatly diminished is the chief reason for the present demand for restriction almost to the limit of prohibition

While it may be true that it took 17 years to pave East Cedar avenue South Arch street is in a good way to surpass that record Although the work was commenced three years ago the present rate of progress indicates that it will take about 20 years to complete it

No doubt Chief McDonald is weighing very carefully some of the endorsements and congratulatory messages and assurances of support by which he is being overwhelmed while also making mental note of some of the names for future references in case coöperation of citizens is needed in his house-cleaning campaign

There are 18 more buying days upon which to match your Christmas purchases by purchases of Christmas Red Cross seals

The chautauqua can keep Connellsville on its list if its agents list to the call issued in the churches yesterday get busy and list up prospective ticket buyers

You can begin Christmas shopping at 8 30 which is early enough if you begin at an early date

Forwarned

Harvey's Weekly

For five years at least we are safe from foreign military attack The reason we are thus safeguarded is because we have 4 000 000 men and 200 000 officers mentally and physically trained for war They are scattered all over the country, the units of our dissolved World War army

General March in his very interesting and important report presents this fact and draws from it the conclusion that now is the time to begin preparing for the creation of a similarly trained reserve against the day when the present reserve can no longer be counted upon

The question of universal military training dropped into the background during the campaign just ended It is a great and vital question none the less, and it must be met in some way or other before the incoming Administration has been long installed at Washington The advantages of military training and discipline to the oncoming generation of American young men are in themselves so obvious that there is no argument to the contrary that will stand up for a moment

And this is saying nothing of the fact that the knowledge of our possession of a reserve of soldiery such as a period of this training would give us would be the very best insurance against war that we could have

That this is the view of General March as well as of General Wood and of all our most enlightened military men is of course notorious General March in his report even goes so far as to say that if we had made such preparations as would have revealed to the world that we envisaged the possibility of becoming involved in the great struggle Germany would never have ventured on the series of aggressions which ultimately left us no alternative save to plunge in no matter how unprepared we were And General March is furthermore of the opinion that the same fatuous inaction in the matter of war preparedness which brought us into the war was the cause of England herself being involved

In other words had Great Britain been even approximately as well prepared for war as was France Belgium never would have been invaded In fact it is very doubtful if even the war obsession of Germany's militarists themselves would have led them to start the war Thus we have the responsibility for the awful four years of slaughter put squarely on the shoulders of those pacifist dreamers who stubbornly blinded themselves to an obvious and ever growing menace until it was too late to avert the impending disaster

Just Folks

Edgar A. Guest.

A LITTLE TIME AT HOME.

This life has grown so mixed a thing with all there is to do
One task treads on another's heels before you're fairly through It's business in the morning when I read my mail or try
Before the telephone begins into my time to pry
Or visit with a visitor and treat him
as a friend
Then hustle to a meeting that I've promised to attend
But nowhere in the scheme of life since
I grew up to roam
Seems there to be an hour for me to spend in peace at home

I would not by a word of mine or single hasty act
Wound any man who calls me friend
I merely state the fact That life has lost its olden charm which long ago it knew
When men could be contented here without a thing to do
But now upon a treadmill that goes ever round and round
From dawn to midnight I must trudge for fear that I'll be downed Upon a schedule I must toil as ships that ply the foam
Chartered for everything except a quiet hour at home

When dawn arrives and over all the shades of night descend
Somewhere there is a banquet or a show I must attend
Into my evening dress I jump the while my girl and lad
Stand by me as I shave myself to visit with their dad
The old time father used to take his children on his knee
But that's one happy privilege which life denies to me
And yet I vow some day we three will share the evening gleam
And I will tell them wondrous tales—
the night I stay at home

I often fancy I would like to catch some mild disease
So I might stay in bed awhile and read what books I please
Some comfortable ailment which to suffer I'd enjoy
With no committees to attend no phone calls to annoy—
A few brief days of perfect peace too ill to do a thing
Yet not too ill to want to hear the songs the youngsters sing
Could I break up the schedule which compels me now to roam
I'd realize my fondest dream—a little time at home

Ask Americans to Finish the Job in Europe

By Maude A. White

The appeal of boys and girls like this Polish girl has touched America profoundly since the Armistice. Mothers and fathers here could not bear of hungry children in Eastern and Central Europe without contrasting the lot of their own happy boys and girls with those pitifully starving in countries made unproductive by war. In gratitude to the fates that the fighting had not been on our own soil, and in pity for the children who suffered innocently, American mothers and fathers gave and gave abundantly to help care for the hungry in Europe. Like a boomerang their good deeds came back to them Not only were the children fed, but a lasting friendship was gained for America, a friendship that will not die with this generation.

Thousands of these tots who are being fed in American Relief Administration European Children's Fund kitchens today will grow up to tell their children how American food saved their lives Future rulers and diplomats of European republics stand in line, cup and spoon in hand, waiting for the American soup and cocoa that mean life to them The task America set herself is not yet completed These children, two and a half million of them in Poland, the Baltic States, Austria and Czecho-Slovakia must be cared for through this winter, unless previous relief is to go for naught. Herbert Hoover's European Children's Fund is caring for them but from January on the work must stop unless the American people say by popular subscription that they want it to continue Mr Hoover says that $23,000,000 will finish the job.

The double-service tooth paste, keeps teeth clean AND GUMS HEALTHY.

Keeping the gums healthy and the mouth sweet is very important to health, more teeth are lost through the loosening of the tissue that holds the teeth in place than from decay.

Dental science to-day demands that a tooth paste must keep the gums healthy as well as clean the teeth.

Senreco was formulated to meet this requirement. Hundreds of dentists are prescribing and using Senreco because they have found that it does measure up to that standard.

SENRECO IS A WONDERFUL CLEANSER.

In addition to its remedial properties Senreco is a wonderful cleanser; acts directly on the mucin film, the basis of tartar; leaves the mouth cool and clean-feeling. As some one has expressed it—Senreco gives one a new idea on mouth cleanliness.

Get a tube to-day at your druggists or toilet counter—enjoy the healthy, cleanly feeling its use gives your mouth and gums. Notice how brilliantly white Senreco makes your teeth. It performs this two-fold service for you and yet costs no more than the ordinary, old-fashioned tooth paste that simply cleans the teeth and leaves a pleasant taste.

PETEY——— MY, WHAT A TERRIBLE PICKLE ——— BY C. A. VOIGHT

Prominent Western Man Praises Tanlac

G. W. Logan, Peabody, Kansas

"Tanlac has completely restored my health and I feel finer than in years," was the straightforward statement made recently by Mr. George W. Logan of Peabody, Kansas, one of the most prominent stock dealers in the Middle West.

"It has not only made a new man of me but I have actually gained thirty-five pounds in weight and feel as well as I ever did in my life. I am telling all of my friends about Tanlac but they can see for themselves what it has done in my case.

"When I began taking Tanlac I was in an awfully run-down condition. I was away off in weight, felt weak and nervous all of the time and couldn't take any interest in my work or anything else. My main trouble was indigestion. Nothing seemed to agree with me. At times I would have dizzy spells and at other times my back would ache so bad that I could hardly get up and down in my chair. This is just the condition I was in when I started to take this medicine. It took just six bottles to make a well man of me. I now have a fine appetite, everything tastes good and my digestion is perfect.

"My wife was also troubled with indigestion at times and it relieved her the same way. You may publish my statement wherever you like and if anyone doubts it, just tell them to see me."

Tanlac is sold in Connellsville by all leading druggists.—Adv.

When Will the Steel Trade Revive?

The American Metal Market.

The position of the steel industry at present is that the United States Steel Corporation is operating at approximately as heavy a rate as at any time in the recent past, while the independents are operating at something like 50 per cent on an average, there being a wide divergence. Several plants are practically idle, others are operating at 40 to 60 per cent and a few are doing 75 per cent or better. Independent operations are decreasing and by the end of the year will be materially lighter than at present. It is all a matter of business on books, and the prices at which a producer was selling some time ago the more business there is on books at present, on which to operate.

The question is naturally asked, when will demand for steel revive? The fact should be emphasized that this is not a matter that is subject to the dictation of the mills. The case is not like that of many retail stores, which would have a much larger business today if they reduced their prices. Patrons of retail stores have gone on strike against high prices. It has been noticed that whenever important reductions were made, good sized sales resulted.

There is no price issue between the steel mills and their customers. It is not a price deadlock. Buyers are not making bids and producers rejecting bids, for any tonnage of steel that would amount to anything. Thus no situation is presented that the mills could meet by reducing prices. It is to be assumed that mills could afford to make some reductions in prices, perhaps not extensive, and still have profits, provided they were assured of moderately full operations. By cutting costs they could make further and more extensive price reductions. There is no adequate volume of business available at this time at any price.

The answer to the question why there is no demand for steel is different in different lines of consumption. The public has stopped buying automobiles and probably would not buy to any extent if prices were reduced to the automobile factory cost, even though that would doubtless be a very extensive reduction. If the price of each automobile were reduced now by the total amount that the steel mill received for the steel consumed in building the automobile the sale would be materially increased.

In the case of building of dwelling houses, apartment houses, office buildings and hotel buildings the cost of the steel does not stand in the way. The builder or investor is not objecting in particular to the cost of the steel involved, but to the cost of construction in general, the high prices for the various things required, and particularly the high labor cost, made by high wage rates and very slack performance of the men.

In the case of the railroads there is a lack of funds available at such interest rates as the railroads would be justified in paying, when they are guaranteed at the outside earnings no greater than six per cent on valuation. In the case of freight cars there is the difficulty of high costs of the various parts and appurtenances that must be assembled by the car builder. The railroads consider some of the prices outrageously high. There is no particular objection to the price that would have to be paid for plates or structural shapes for building cars.

The other lines of consumption could be taken up in detail, the whole summary showing that for one reason or another buyers of steel are not seeking steel at this time. It is not the price of steel that stands in the way. Eventually steel prices may be lower, and certainly some mills will quote lower prices than they quote now, but there is no case of mills refusing to meet the situation that exists. The country is not yet ready to take steel in large quantities and will have to go much farther in readjustment before it becomes ready.

At the Theatres

THE SOISSON.

"MADAM X."—Today's feature attraction is a screen version of the famous stage drama, "Madame X." Pauline Frederick fills the role of "Madame X," who is banished from home, husband and son early in her married life by an unfortunate circumstance which brands her as untrue in the stern eyes of her husband. She is reduced to the lowest misery. Twenty years later she kills a man to save her son from being informed of the truth about his fallen mother. In the trial the son, unaware of his mother's identity, is the council for the defense, and wins her case. Miss Frederick plays the mother role tragically, passionately, and does not hesitate to sacrifice her natural attractiveness for the sake of her characterization, which is necessarily an unbeautiful one. Toward the close, however, her face expresses the beauty of sublimation that suffering and sorrow have brought. Casson Ferguson as the son and William Courtleigh as the husband have exacting, forceful roles to which they are fully equal. The trial scene has been skillfully acted and directed. The meeting between mother and son is suspended until just the right moment and the climax is a real dramatic achievement. Patrons, both men and women, have expressed themselves as being very deeply moved by this photo-drama. The picture will also be presented tomorrow.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"HELP YOURSELF."—Madge Kennedy's latest Goldwyn picture, is being shown today. The story of "Help Yourself" is based on the famous serial written by Wallace Irwin for the Saturday Evening Post. "Trimmed With Red." The first scenes are laid in the home of Rosamonde Vallant who believes that animals contain the souls of dead geniuses, but she is won by Mrs. Finnessey to an interest in a new kind of professor. Her husband, Merlin, is enraged at her new fad, while her friend, Emily, is only amused. Meanwhile, Rosamonde disposes of her menagerie containing the souls of dead geniuses, except for an alligator which she keeps in a bath tub, because he has the soul of an Egyptian priest. One of the scenes of "Help Yourself" that will surely add to the entertaining qualities of this picture concerns a week-end party of society women and Bohemians that is held at the beautiful Long Island home of Aunt Carrian. The picture will also be presented tomorrow.

THE ORPHEUM.

"THE WORLD AND HIS WIFE"—A story of a false scandal and true love, presenting Montague Love and Alma Rubens, popular screen stars, is being shown today and will also be the principal attraction tomorrow.

Feodora, a beautiful young Spanish girl, marries Don Julian, whom she loves dearly, though he is much older than she. Fulfilling a promise, Don Julian invites Ernesto, a youthful writer, to come and live with them, upon the death of Ernesto's father. Ugly stories, utterly without foundation, begin circulating about Ernesto and Feodora. Don Julian's brother, Don Severo, and Mercedes, his wife, come from a distant town to warn Don Julian of the scandal. Don Alvarez, a trouble-maker, awakens Don Julian's suspicions still more, and Ernesto goes to live in another part of town. In a cafe, Don Alvarez makes a sneering remark about Feodora, and Ernesto knocks him down. This means a duel. Don Julian realizes that Ernesto was seeking to defend Feodora's honor and, knowing that Don Alvarez is one of the best swordsmen in Spain, deliberately insults him and takes Ernesto's place in the duel. Don Alvarez is killed, and Don Julian, fatally wounded, is taken to Ernesto's studio.
